OES Observes Farewell Night for '55 Officers

Torrance Chapter observed farewell night for the 1955 Officers, Thursday evening Nov. 17, at the Torrance Masonic Temple at 8:00 p.m.

As one entered the chapter room they were attracted to the East where a huge fish net hung, colored pink, in the center was the word "ALOHA," made of large stereoform letters covered with silver glitter. From the net hung many varieties of orchids, which had been made by the committee. As each guest arrived they were given a beautiful orchid corsage. On the step in front of the Dias was a white manzanita tree with orchids and two parakeets sitting on the limbs.

Chapter was called to order by the worthy patron, Earl Wells, all officers entered, dressed in white, carrying the lovely baskets of flowers like they had carried at their installation, and chapter was opened in regular form with the worthy patron, Phyllis Peverley presiding.

The flag of our country was escorted to the East by the flag bearer, Clyde Satterfield and all gave the Pledge of Allegiance.

The following worthy patron and worthy patrons were escorted and presented. Jo Parsons and Cecil Dowling, Lomita; Doris Savage, Wilmington; Merle Savage and Bill Gallaretto, San Pedro Harbor; Ellen Zankich and Paul Burns, Point Firmin; Virginia Baker, Playa
